

I am filing this complaint regarding the action to end net neutrality. The only ones who will benefit from this unnecessary action are the overly large corporations such as Comcast that provide internet services to so many. Please take into consideration the masses of children and adults who use the internet on a daily basis for school and for work. Do not allow corporations to rule the lives of so many and cause economic hardship.